

MADISON STORYTELLERS FESTIVAL

Saturday, September 16, 2017

| | Short Stories Stage (23 Main St., Madison, NJ) | Jolie Stage (32 Main St., Madison, NJ) | Outdoor Stage (Corner of Main St and Green Village Rd. in Madison, NJ) |
|--------------|---|---|---|
| Noon - 12:15 | | | Kickoff speeches and celebration! |
| 12:30 - 1:15 | The Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey – is one of the largest professional Shakespeare companies in North America – presents an interactive workshop on the sound effects of storytelling, encouraging audience members to become “Foley Sound Effects Artists.” | Curiosity Day with Curious George! We celebrate the magic of learning and discovery through reading as only George and The Man with the Yellow Hat can. | Jeff Webb (Music from 12:20 - 1) |
| 1:30 - 2:15 | Dance Innovations Performance Company from Chatham, NJ will be performing "A Fairytale Journey" featuring many of your favorite storybook friends, with excerpts from their musical show "Happily Ever After" which premiered at the Bickford Theatre. | Children’s author Mike Malbrough reads from his book Marigold Bakes a Cake . “This book contains the perfect recipe for fun... ideal for a storytime reading.” — School Library Journal | Rosewood Band (Music from 1-2) |
| 2:30 - 3:15 | Writers Theatre of New Jersey presents readings with New Jersey Youth Poet Laureate winners and New Jersey Poetry Out Loud Regional winners. | Step Right Up Studio invites you to an improv workshop for kids. The studio provides special needs kids with classes in Improv, Stand Up, Voiceovers, Creative Writing, Playwriting and Creative Movement. | Hatchet Jack (Music from 2-3) |
| 3:30 - 4:15 | Join Madison’s Spotlight Kids Company for an hour of theatre! Begin by watching a small group of Spotlight Kids sing their newest medley of hit Broadway songs, then participate in some fun theatre improv games, led by the performers! | Visualization of storytelling workshop for kids with Julia Erickson from Jolie. | Dave Murphy (Music from 3-4) |
| 4:30 - 5:15 | Renowned storyteller New York Times bestselling author Kambri Crews! She is the author of the critically acclaimed and New York Times best-selling memoir Burn Down the Ground (Random House). Crewes has performed on The Moth, Literary Death Match, Risk! and Mortified and has appeared at SXSW Comedy, UCB Theatre, Gotham Comedy Club | Writers Theatre of New Jersey will be sharing some of the work written by young Madison playwrights. Professional actors will read plays written entirely by Madison students, grades 4-12. | Max Orsini (Music from 4-5) |